Share sale: Reliance Power drags Edelweiss to HC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, February 13

ANILAMBANI-LED RELIANCE Power (RPL) on Wednesday moved the Bombay High Court seeking to reverse the sale of its pledged shares by the Edelweiss group, but the court refused to grant any interim relief to the embattled group.

A single judge bench headed by KR Shriram refused to order the reversal of the sale process or grant any other relief to the company and posted the matter for detailed hearing Thursday.

Significantly, the petition does not name L&T Finance as a respondent in the case, though Reliance group had also named it in a public statement last Sunday.

The move comes after a war of words between the two companies last week after the Edelweiss and L&T Finance had sold pledged shares of Reliance Power and other group companies following steep correction in stock prices after Reliance Communication decided to file for bankruptcy on February 1. Since then the group companies have lost around 70% of their market value.

The judge said he will hear the petition in details on merit over other prayers made by RPL such as declaring the above sale illegal and void, and seeking compensation from Edelweiss for the financial and reputational losses following the liquidation of its shares.

RPL in its plea said it along with group company RCom had pledged some shares of various promoter companies to the Edelweiss group in lieu of a loan it had borrowed.

On February 4, RPL received a notice from Edelweiss ECL Finance notifying the sale of its shares by the debenture holding companies of Edelweiss group. And the next day, shares worth ₹5.96 crore were sold. Some shares were also transferred to the debenture holders the same evening by the debenture trustee at a much lower value.

ECL counsel Janak Dwarkadas said it was well within its rights to sell the pledged shares. Dwarkadas also said in August 2018 RPL shares had plummeted and as per their contract, the company was required to pay an additional 2% interest on the loan. But, it refused to pay the additional amount so far.

"And on February 1 this year, RCom had filed for bankruptcy following which share prices plummeted again. But RPL never bothered to communicate with us. We needed to protect our debenture holders and, therefore, sold the pledged shares," Dwarkadas said.

RPL counsel Aspi Chinoy, however, argued that as per its contract, share sale can have been initiated only by the trustee of the debenture holders and not the debenture holders themselves. Chinoy further argued that the notice given just a day prior to the sale was inadequate and therefore, owing to the above reasons, the sale must be declared void by the court. It further said such sale also led to its share prices plummeting and causing ₹274-crore losses.

RPL also accused the debenture trustee of having ignored its fiduciary obligations to realise fair value for the pledged shares. It argued that RPL must be compensated by ECL for the loss. The bench, however, said during the detailed hearing, RPL will have to prove that in giving just a day's notice before the sale, ECL committed a breach of contract.

"Your contract provides for a 24-hour notice so you will have to prove that under some existing law it was illegal. Why did you agree for a 24-hour notice in the first place while borrowing money?" the bench asked and said he was not inclined to pass any interim orders granting relief to RPL. "Ad interim relief rejected. Reasons for the same will be recorded separately," he said, adding a detailed order is likely to come by Thursday evening.

Reliance Capital reports ₹213-crore net income

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, February 13

RELIANCE CAPITAL ON Wednesday reported a consolidated net income of ₹213 crore in the December quarter against ₹6 crore in the same period last year, primarily driven by the general insurance arm that chipped in with more than half the profit.

However, the company said its total income fell to ₹5,016 crore from ₹5,386 a year ago while total assets grew 7% to ₹89,400 crore, the company said in a statement. The company did not offer any reason for the drop in total income or the massive spike in net income.

Consolidated results are prepared in line with IndAS accounting standards even though insurance companies are not covered under IndAS, it said.

The mutual fund arm Reliance Nippon Life Asset Management Company reported a net income of ₹110 crore in the reporting quarter. Its assets under management rose 7% to ₹4,14,362 crore as of December.

The home finance business Reliance Home Finance said its loan book rose 26% to ₹16,160 crore. Reliance Nippon Life Insurance reported a new business premium growth of 13% at ₹243 crore, while the renewal premium stood at ₹793 crore, said the company

Repco Home Finance Q3 net profit jumps 31%

FE BUREAU
Chennai, February 13

REPCO HOME FINANCE on Wednesday reported a 31% increase in its net profit at ₹55.64 crore for the third quarter compared to ₹42.42 crore in the corresponding quarter last fiscal. The Chennai-based housing finance company has earned a total income of ₹303.92 crore against ₹274.56 crore.

The net interest income of the company grew 8% in Q3 to ₹115.2 crore while net interest margins and interest spread stood at 4.4% and 3%, respectively. The loans sanctions surged to ₹805.2 crore and return on assets and equity remained robust at 2.1% and 15.4%, respectively.

While the overall loan book rose 12.4% to ₹10,666.8 crore at the end of December 2018, individual home loan book grew 13.2%. Loans to the self-employed segment accounted for 55.1% of the outstanding loan book and loans against property product accounted for 18.4% of the same.

Yashpal Gupta, MD & CEO of Repco Home Finance, said: "The financial results when seen in the context of pervasive macroeconomic instability meet our expectations. The liquidity crisis, which was at its zenith between October and December 2018, could not deter the company from reporting double-digit growth in disbursements and loan book, and maintaining healthy profitability ratios. Going forward, the slew of strategic initiatives the company has taken will drive its growth ambitions and profitability forward. Return of normalcy on the liquidity front would be a big positive."
